OF BUTTER IN THE UNINA AND EAST INDIA PORTS. IT has been brought to our notice that certain market, and representing themselves as "solo agents for Horage L SILL." and that the representations made by one of said parties in China had the effect to obtain for the an-nalled "Sill's brand" a price greater than that obtained for the BUTTER packed by us. While we care nothing about the use of Mr. BILL's came, we feel a regard for our own reputation, and do not wish to remain under even a suspicion of inferiority which a difference in pri e inevitably suggests. We therefore beg leave to call your attention to the following facts. Our Mr. C. II. PRATT Was connected in business with H. L. Sill from 1844 to 1856. Mr. Sith retired from active business in 1852, retaining a special interest until 1856, when the connection ceased, and since that time has not packed any BUTTER for shipment. From 1847 to 1853 Mr. PRATT personally selected and supervised the packing of every, pound of BUTTER that left this port branded " II. In Sing " In 1857 and 1858 he branded "C. H. PRATE, successor to H. L. Sill," but since that time has preferred to let his BUTTER go under his own W. H. Forbes, Esq. Arthur Sussoon, Esq. albt. F. Heard, Esq. Caleb T. Smith, Esq. name and stand upon its merits. Mr. PRATT, as Mr. Sill's partner and successor | Geo. J. Helland, Esq. Hon. Thos. Sutherland, Esq. is the only party legally entitled to use the brand | Henry B. Lemann, Esq. "H. L. Sila," and the present packers of the so-called " Sill's brand" of BUTTER, knowing that fact, attempt to get eround it by styling themselves " sole agents ;" the fallacy of which is apparent from the fact that Mr. Sile has not packed any BUTTER for over thirtren years. With over twenty years' experience in packing for the China market, controlling some of the beat dairies in the country, and both partners giving their constant personal attention to the selection and packing of every pound of BUTTER put up by us, we are prepared to guarantee and do berchy guarantee that every package of BUT-TER bearing our genuine brand, thus: Goskey Butter, shall be fully equal if not supe rior to the original standard a C. H. PRATT. established by H. L. Stat.

If Care were not the waiter Rehind a fellow's chair, When easy going somers Sit down to Ricamond dinners, And life's swift streams flow'd at mighter . By Jore, it would be rare If care were not the waiter Behind a fellow's chair,

A new variation of the Venusian's saying. Bu it is with another a d far lower stratum of life in London that we propose to deal. Purfy ar years ngo a gentleman named Bell a good judge of what a certain portion of the public wante! appears to have started the j urnal known as Bell, a Lif in London To this day the journal in one-time reflects with admirable accorney certain phases of metropolitan life which are well worth notice is unwise to ign re env of the innumerable elements of society. That one half of the world answer nothing of the life of the other half, is a very ancient aphorism ; a glance at Bell's Life suffice. to prove its truth. Here is an example. " A merry mill, for £5 a side (such as for gamenes is seldem equalled) took place on Monday last." This morry mill was a fight in two acts-the first of seven rounds in 23 minutes (when the pulige interno ed ), and the second of eleven rounds in 10 minut s. when the referee stopped the encounter, as " the visual organs of bath men were gradually clusing up." Obviously there are motes of enjoying merriment not known to all of us: to fight for three quarters of an hour for a ten-prund note, a d come out of the bus ness black and blue and blind, might not post everybody. But then, say bertain reasoners, what is to become of the "noble art of self-defeare" The manifest reply is - corn it with the glov a on. Nothing is gained by allowing two young tellows to punish one another, unless we necept the theory of Sir William Fraser, who held that as two ruffians who deserved to be well thrushed inflicted on each other a good thrashing, a prize fight was an excellent thing in its way. As these conflicts a member of the staff of Belt's Life up. puars usually to act us "referee." It must be a nice acception for the literary gentlemen. One prize-fighter is bad enough; but when there are two make of pugilistic ruffians, each set supporting their favourite with voice and fi-t, the ampire should be a mun of courage and resolution. Are there ever any casualties among the staff? We turn the page, and find surselves among dogs and rats. Whence came all the rate that must be caught for destruction if the various wagers which are advertised come off? One toverpkeeper offers a prize that makes one shudder-"a large leg of pork to be ratted for - with the intimation that does must " destroy half their weight in rate." Crust and vulgar as rat-killing in. there is more to be said for it than for prisafighting. Rats must be destroyed in the agriculturel districts; and the breed of rat-killing dogs is kapt up to the mark by these contests. Still we do not know that the persons who patronise them are quite worthy of the suffrage , it is a question for Mr. Bright. The pleasantest and most birmless ammement that we nutice is pigeon fancying. It does not fill so wide a opace as dog-fandying, yet clearly there are a great number of purposes to whom it yields delight And indeed there is frue linagin dive pleasure in thinking of the flight of those beautiful swift birds through miles of trackless air. Who forgots Bernnger's exquete

"L'Ai brillalt, et ma jeune maitresse. Chantuit les dieux dans la Gréce oublies;

Nous comparinte notre France & la Green. Quant un pigeon vint s'abattre à uns pieds." We find it announced that to-day there is to ! a show of long-distanged pigeons," the pair of cocks have never been defeated, and have win more t'an a houded pounds; three hous have flow : from Falmouth, 369 miles; twenty pigeons have cash done 100 miles. There may not be Mosers Januare, Marneson & O . Ais at the much amusement in looking at these cres uses of the element onged in a public house parkeur but it has certainly an advantage over rathing for large less of pork -even over a "merry mill" whole, or part, can be let to meet the requireresulting in the temp. rary! lindness of the performers. It is, perhaps, as well that we should accasionally remember the sharp difference between the cultured and uncultured classes a differencewhich manifests itself especially in their namusements. One of Mr. Disraeli's finest novels lens for its see and title The Two Notions; and one of Mr. Darani's strongest desires has siways been to make those two nations that dwall in England one and the same. Here in London there are two principal building is very suitable for division viz. nations, one of whom Messes Bright and Beales, into Offices or Uhambers. world fain see at war with the other, -Globe.
